

Implementation of Code of Ethics for Research in Aliah University

Aliah University ensures the implementation of Code of Ethics for research activities by incorporating research ethics into the research methodology course work, forming institutional ethics committees, conducting plagiarism checks, forming doctoral scrutiny committees (DSC) (or research advisory committee) for all enrolled research scholars, and updating the University Research regulations as per the directives and advisory of UGC time to time. Details of research ethics maintaining documents are uploaded on the university website, which can be accessible via the following links:
