Important Information regarding AU Research Entrance Test (AURET) 2024-25

1. All Applications have now been verified by respective Departmental Research Committees (DRC).
2. Accordingly, three separate list have been prepared: List of AURET Eligible Candidates, List of Candidates Exempted from AURET, and List of Candidates whose applications have been rejected or Put on Hold.
3. These 3 lists have been uploaded both on the university website (<https://aliah.ac.in/doctoral-admission>) and on the Admission Portal (<https://aums.aliah.ac.in/>).
4. Only candidates who are eligible to appear for the AURET will be able to download their Admit cards from the evening of 8 April onwards.
5. The option to download the Admit card will remain open till 12 noon on 13 April. However, candidates are advised to download their Admit Cards at the earliest to avoid last minute technical glitch. Also read the below given Instructions regarding AURET carefully.
6. There are few candidates who had applied for EXEMPTION from the AURET but did not submit the hard copies of NET/SET/GATE certificates/scorecards for verifications. Such candidates will have to appear for the AURET to be considered for admission.
7. Some Applicants will find that their applications have either been REJECTED or PUT ON HOLD. Such applications will not be considered further for admission, and no individual communication in this regard will be made. Reasons for applications being Rejected or Put on Hold may include:
 - Hard Copy of the application and/or supporting documents were not submitted (on time) for verification.
 - Candidate was found ineligible for the course applied for.
 - Candidate has not submitted all marksheets (particularly of final semester) of the examination which is the minimum requirement for the admission.
 - Any discrepancy was detected in marksheets or other testimonials.
8. Disclaimer: Securing an admit card does not automatically imply admission in the specified course. The decision of the university authority regarding the eligibility of any applicant shall be final.
9. If an applicant is found ineligible at any stage or is detected to have furnished any wrong or manipulated information/documents, his/her application/admission will be cancelled forthright.
