

Department of Geography

Aliah University, Kolkata

Notice

Date: 03.04.2020

This is for the information of all concerned that the as per the university notification of vide memo No: AU/VC/069/20 dated 28/03/2020, the Department of Geography has taken initiative for the development of study material of theory classes for the remaining part of uncovered syllabus of the present semester which will be uploaded in the University's website for ready availability to the students soon. The students are also hereby informed that after going through the study materials they may clear any doubts regarding the e-content from the respective teachers through emails/ mobile/ Whatsapp/Skype etc.

It is further notified that the resources including a part of a book, article and website which will be made available under the e-content section of the departmental webpage are intended for the learning purposes of the UG and PG students of Geography, Aliah University only for a limited time period. The resources are strictly not to be used for any other purposes. It is also notified that while preparing the study materials the sources are to be referred.

HoD (Officiating)

Department of Geography