February 10-14, 2020, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Dept. of Islamic Studies, Aliah University, Park Circus Campus

Report

The Department of Islamic Studies in Collaboration with The Institute of Objective Studies (IOS) organized a Five-day winter school programme in Islamic Studies, on and from February 10-14, 2020, in the Park Circus Campus of Aliah University. The programme was started with a view to imparting basic but deep knowledge to the university/college students pursuing bachelor's and master's degrees in arts and science.

This program we collaborated with an NGO like IOS and addressed to a new and larger audience particularly the students who are future leaders of our community.

There were about 50 participants from the department of Islamic studies and 10 participants from the outside of the department. There were 8 business sessions, one inaugural and one valedictory session. In 8 business sessions 22 lectures had been delivered by experts on the theme mentioned below.

Core Courses

1. Islam as Faith and Civilization
2. Revelation and Its Application (Focus on sources of Shariah that led to the emergence of Fiqh)
3. Fundamentals of Islam, Islamic sciences
4. Islam and Knowledge
5. Non-Muslims in Islam and Muslim History
6. Islam and Multi-culturalism
7. Non-Muslims in the Arab Islamic world
8. Non-Muslims under Muslim Rule in India
9. Globalization: Definition and Critique
10. Islam and Modernity/Westernization (Islam and Secularism, Islam and Terrorism, Islam and Sectarianism. Islam and Contemporary World, Islam and Women, Islam and World Peace, Islam in 21st Century).

The above themes had been carefully chosen keeping in mind the special target students who would be the future role-model and promote the Islamic thought worldwide.
