Notice

This is for general information to all concerned that presently there does not exist any recognized or valid 'Students Union' in this University. The activities, that might be taking place in all campuses in the name of Students Union, would not be at all in conformity with the norms of the University and that are not at all tenable. Therefore, all students of the university are advised not to pay any heed to the appeals/calls made by anybody or any group of students in the name of Students' Union. If anybody succumbs to indisciplined activities in the University campus by using the name of 'Students Union' will be dealt strictly in accordance with the extant disciplinary procedures of the University.
